

House Resolution No. 1210

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State governmental employees who demonstrate the highest standards of conduct and performance as they fulfill their assigned duties and responsibilities; and

Whereas, Kristen Langley of Bowling Green, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a Corrections Officer I with the Missouri Department of Corrections' Northeast Correctional Center in Bowling Green; and

Whereas, on March 24, 2005, Kristen Langley will enhance her already impressive record of achievement when she receives a Lifesaver Award from the Missouri Department of Corrections in light of her activities while off duty on September 21, 2004; and

Whereas, Kristen Langley was driving when she noticed a man lying on the shoulder of the road; and

Whereas, Kristen Langley stopped to investigate and discovered that the man was having a seizure; and

Whereas, Kristen Langley summoned an ambulance, waited with the man until he was transported to a hospital, and then went to his house to inform his wife of his condition and location; and

Whereas, the quick, astute, and highly professional actions of Kristen Langley played a crucial role in getting proper medical treatment for the diabetic and saving his life; and

Whereas, initially hired by the Missouri Department of Corrections on June 7, 1999, Kristen Langley is the widowed single mom of Jacob, Blake, and Ian and is the recipient of an earlier Lifesaver Award in 2003:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to commend the diverse professional activities of Corrections Officer I Kristen Langley, to convey to her this legislative body's heartiest congratulations upon her selection for a Department of Corrections Lifesaver Award, and to express our sincerest best wishes for continued personal and professional success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Kristen Langley of Bowling Green, Missouri.
